HAPPY CONFUSION - DCJ PHOTOS

The skies may be gloomy and grey, as they were on Saturday when this was the scene at Burr's Boatyard in Marion; however, the activity was at a brisk pace as the launchings were in progress and the rigging underway. As April turns into history, perhaps the leaky weekends will start to shine again. Hope springs eternal and the boats will be ready. Every yard along the bay is humming and the moorings begin to fill with the craft that is hitting the water with regularity.

laying out the road, Mr. Bowman did not recommend acceptance. He cited several conditions making the road unacceptable; namely, the catch basins are in bad shape and dirt is running into them, and several of the covers are placed on improperly. He noted of eight catch basins only one is acceptable. He said it was too bad the road has had the final coat as this will mean digging it up again to repair the basins. "The hardtop will have to be cut in about a six foot square," Mr. Bowman said.

Mr. Bowman also explained the 10 foot plastic pipe was dented because under the pipe was never cemented. The covers should be centered and put on correctly; otherwise it is difficult to clean out the basins.

Selectmen Chairman William F. Hubbard said to Mr. Bowman, "If you don't recommend acceptance, we will support you 100 percent. We don't need roads to come in costing us money." Previously, Mr. Bowman noted, costly replacement work was necessary on Acorn Lane which had been accepted.

The Board agreed to have Mr. Bowman supervise replacement work, and then Selectmen will support the road's acceptance.

A letter from William Nicholson, Water/Sewer Department Superintendent, noted the water main, house services, gate valves and fire hydrants on Abby Lane were installed and tested in accordance with the Town's Water Department's specifications.

On another matter, Selectmen read a letter from the Highway Surveyor regarding the drain problems in the area of Mr. Antone Costa's property on Brandt Island Road.

Mr. Bowman met with State Representative John C. Bradford, Mr. William Flanigan, State Aid engineer for the Massachusetts Department of Public Works, and Mr. Costa and his engineer, Mr. Robert Cattley, to discuss the long standing drainage problem. Mr. Costa explained that the long-time flooding of his land by winter runoff with road salt has affected his well.

Representative Bradford was hopeful that a solution could be found and felt that bringing together the parties most involved would create a useful dialogue. Mr. Flanigan agreed that a problem did exist, but state aid funds could only be expended as part of a major reconstruction for the road. He stated that this piece of road had been bypassed in the past due to the difficulty and expense. Mr. Cattley pointed out that the section of road was basically unsafe due to heavy traffic volumes and speeding. The drainage problems were just part of the greater problem of poor vertical and horizontal alignment.

The Highway Surveyor informed Selectmen by letter that this section of road needs to be discussed as part of an overall review of the roads in town. With the Selectmen's assistance, "I would like to establish priorities with goals for the town road system to guide my operations. I will conduct an inspection of the roads, prepare an inventory of needs, and an audit of resources available. After that, I would like to meet with you in an indepth discussion to formulate a master plan."

In other business, Selectmen:

HELD A MOMENT OF SILENCE in memory of Melvin J. Miller, who served as a member of the Housing Authority and worked diligently with the Council on Aging supervising the operation of the senior van and the Community Food Distributiion Program.

A letter from Town Clerk Lois K. Ennis to Housing Authority Director June W. Mendell advised her of the procedures to fill the vacancy on the Housing Authority. The procedure is for a joint roll-call vote of the Selectmen and Authority members to select a person to serve until the next annual town

MET WITH Harvey Blanchette, Chairman of the Mattapoisett Housing Partnership Committee, and Peter Kortright, Chairman of the Growth Management Study Committee, to clarify the guidelines for development of the Mattapoisett Homeownership Opportunity Program (HOP). Selectmen approved the guidelines as prepared by Mr. Blanchette.

Mr. Blanchette explained his committee is applying to the State Housing Partnership Program for a $10,000 MAP grant to employ professional help to evaluate the proposal of Pleasant Street Development Corp. entitled "The Beacon at Mattapoisett". The town Partnership Committee has extended an invitation to Paul E. Cusson, President of the Pleasant Street Development Company, for 7:30 p.m. May 11th in the Town Hall Conference Room to discuss the company's proposal to build 55-70 housing units on the 16.15 acres off Park Street, a percentage of which will be affordable housing units.

The definition of low income is less than 80 percent of the town median household income; moderate income, between 80 percent and 120 percent of the town median household income. Affordable housing (as defined by the Massachusetts Housing Partnership Program): units requiring the expenditure of no more than 30 percent of the gross annual income of a household earning between $17,000 and $43,000 for housing, including principal, interest, Fifteen steps are recommended to be taken by developers to save time and money. The first step has been taken and will be completed following a meeting with the developer (scheduled for May 11th). Some of the steps include a financial statement, resume of past projects and detailed project description. Mr. Blanchette noted the developer plans to submit an application to the state for site approval in July 1988. To the committee's knowledge, the Zoning Board of Appeals has taken no action on the proposal.

Mr. Blanchette noted his concern that his committee was not informed about the scheduled May 3rd Conservation Commision hearing on the "Beacon of Mattapoisett" development. The hearing is called to determine the delineation of wetlands in the 16.15 acres.

Selectman Bernard F. Talty commented, "We don't have the technical expertise to work on these applications. If we had a Town Planner on housing programs, that person could help the committee." He added that the town warrant is seeking to hire a town planner for purposes such as this.

Selectmen recommended a joint meeting of town development heads and the Housing Partnership Committee to coordinate projects. A date after town meeting was suggested. Mr. Kortright said this joint meeting will send a signal out to let "us know what's going on".

MET IN EXECUTIVE SESSION with Town Counsel Donald J. Fleming and Board of Health members Evelyn Ellis, Chairman, Daniel C. Lee and John Bowman and Health Agent Donald C. Wood and Ron Michalski, of Tighe and Bond Engineers, to discuss the possible position of the town on litigation with reference to the sanitary landfill.

Recently Mattapoisett was fined $8,400 for failing to correct chronic violations at its landfill, according to regulations of the State Department of Environmental Quality Engineering. Following the executive session, Town Counsel Fleming said, "The Town will take the case to court and will appeal the DEQE's notice of intent to assess a Civil Administrative Pentalty. Until the final decision is reached, the penalty will not be assessed to the town. Many of the alleged violations have been corrected."

Health Agent Wood said the landfill is still open. "We have been making progress but the state has not inspected the site since last November; 70 percent of the work has been done. The state's specific complaints are that the center is not graded and slopes need to be sloped more gradually. The metal pile is being handled properly."

The legal response to the accusations include: The Town has used all reasonable effort to comply with all state regulations and has added additional personnel and retained an engineering firm; that any delay has been caused in whole or in part by the DEQE. 2. That the supposed new violations are almost a year old and when the town had the finances the town has in fact covered the pile of unchipped and uncovered brush described in the complaint, and has removed the metal pile described.

Other complaints are caused either by the ongoing remedial work or existing conditions and are not violations of any law or regulations. Neither DEQE nor the state has provided the necessary funding to accomplish the remedial work as required by Proposition 2½ and the town is, therefore, excused from performing. 3. The Town also asserts that the amount of the civil penalty ($8,400) is excessive, and the town's financial condition and

The group will end the season of meetings with a trip to Rockport on June 9th. The bus is full, but you may call either Leo Gagnon at 295-5880 or Dot Boardman at 748-2897 to be put on a waiting list.

The Drop-In Center at the Congregational Church Community Building will close for the summer at the end of May. The Council on Aging wants to thank all of the Sippican Seniors who acted as hosts and hostesses this year. Particular thanks go to Clementine Chromik who organized the center, got supplies and saw to it that the center was staffed. Tony Augustus and Walt Stephens deserve the Golden Apple awards as they have opened and shut the center each day, sanded walks, delivered Soundings and were always helpful in a dignified, quiet manner. Natalie Sullivan organized a knitting group. Ceil Barry was in charge of bridge parties. Gert Michaud and Carol DeRocha headed up the whist group. All of these groups have prospered. Thanks to all for a wonderful year. It has certainly been one of fun and growth. President Ceil Barry can stand proud.

The Sippican Seniors are not going to just stop everything for the summer. This year they are taking a very active part in the Horse Show. They are busy addressing about 2,000 envelopes. They will have an interesting booth on July 4th with many gift items. Visit them at their booth.

The group is already planning exciting trips for next fall. Leo Gagnon and Dot Boardman have been a most enthusiastic pair as head of trips. The group looks forward to a wonderful 5 day, 4 night trip in September from the 26th to the 30th to Cape May, N.J. at a cost of $285. or $237 (single). This includes luxury indoor pool, Atlantic City, a nightclub and many other fun features.

They are also planning a mini-vacation trip to the Paramount in Parksville, N.Y. on November

Parsons has earned wide recognition as an accomplished watercolorist. He has exhibited his paintings both regionally and nationally, with recent shows in upper-state New York and Nantucket Island.

His paintings depict many local landscapes and seascapes, along with scenes from his travels to Europe and across the United States. A number of paintings in the Tobey show were done on a recent trip to Montana.

"We're extremely grateful to Dr. Parsons for the generous contribution of his talents", said Charles S. Kinney, hospital president. "He has always played a leadership role in his support of Tobey."

The hospital has raised $2.5 M of the needed $4.8 M for an extensive construction/renovation project that will add a new Emergency/Radiology wing and an Intermediate Care Unit. The drive has already funded the recently completed new Day Surgery Unit at Tobey.

Calling All Artists K-6

Calling all artists in Grades K-6!!! The Mattapoisett Parent-Teachers' Club needs your art work for their 1988 fundraiser. A beautiful calendar is going to be produced using our children's drawings for each calendar month, borders, and in the date blocks. All children are encouraged to submit their work. Here are some easy rules to follow:

1.) Use white 8½" x 11" paper. It is available in your principal's office.

2.) Use only black fine or thick point magic marker.

3.) On a separate piece of paper write your name, grade and phone number. Attach it to your drawing and return to the principal's office.

There is no theme to what must be drawn, so let your imaginations run wild and come up with some spectacular pictures.

sports and casual clothing; and to provide floatarium services, which were described to the Appeals Board as one hour sessions for customers floating in a floatation tank or pod of water containing a high concentration of Epsom salts. Their proposal would be for seven days a week from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., and for $70,000 to make the garage into an attractive building with site plan improvements, including paving for access and parking.

Substantial opposition to the petition was presented to the Board by a number of residents and landowners in the neighborhood, including the Society of Friends, which owns Friends Meeting House located on the north side of Marion Road nearly opposite the petitioners' property, and members of the Society of Friends who regularly attend meetings at the Meeting House.

Until 1985 the petitioners' property, which was purchased by the Monizes in January 1988, was located in the General Business District. By a vote of Town Meeting on May 7, 1985, the Zoning Map was amended to provide this property and neighboring property on the south side of Marion Road be rezoned to Rural Residence.

The decision to deny the petition was based on the fact that this section of Marion Road from Randall Road to Aucoot Road is a traffic hazard area with a long history of accidents. Counsel for the petitioners spoke of the heavy burden on the petitioners if the variance is denied. Because this is a change of use request, an affirmative vote of four members is required and the granting would require three prerequisites be established. The Board found the business would be both a substantial detriment to the public good and would substantially derogate from the intent and purpose of the Zoning By-Law relating to the town meeting vote.

The application of Eileen and James E. Harrington and Ellen and William H. George, both of Hollis-ton, relating to the property at 6 Sagamore Road where the joint owners requested (1) to add a deck not to exceed 14 feet by 16 feet to the rear of the dwelling, and (2) to enclose and insulate the existing front porch into one 20 foot by 10 foot room.

The request to add a deck was denied as it would extend the footprint of structures now covering most of the small lot. The second request to enclose a porch was granted as it will not increase the footprint of the structures.

Building Inspector Andrew J. Bobola and members of the Board of Health attended and shared their concerns as to the size of the lot and the fact that other matters need to be corrected before an occupancy permit can be issued.

The acquisition of the property at 6 Sagamore Road by two separate families for seasonal and weekend use raises the real prospect of an increased occupancy, which may overwhelm the fragile well and septic system. The Board received numerous letters from owners and occupants of neighboring lots and cottages in opposition to the application. A common well located on the boundary of the Richards' property at 4 Sagamore Road provides well water to the applicants' property at 6 Sagamore Road. Opposition expressed concern for the inadequacy of the existing septic system and concern for contamination of well water.

A third application for a Special Permit was partially denied and granted; that of Connett Point Realty Trust, Mattapoisett relating to property at 59 County Road and concerning the Matt's Takeout business at that site.

The application sought to amend the conditions and safeguards in the original grant relating to the conduct of the fast food, health food takeout, drive-in business of Matthew Vangel. The request is to install at least 15 feet from the sidewalk on the east grass area a freestanding sign to be lighted by enclosed fluorescent tubing. (2) to install a neon-lighted window sign; (3) to install a neon-lighted interior wall sign visible to the exterior; (4) to install a green awning sign across the front of the building; (5) to install inside the building two wood tables, each with two wood chairs; and (6) to install outside the building on the east grass area two metal circular tables with umbrellas, each with four metal chairs.

Based on information given at the hearing, the Board voted to deny the first request for a freestanding sign; denied, in part, the second request, except an unlighted window sign 8 inches by 2½ feet may be installed; the third was denied, except an unlighted wall sign 2½ feet by 6 feet may be installed; the fourth was granted, only for the existing awning sign; the fifth request was granted to allow two sets of tables and chairs inside; and the sixth, to install outside tables and chairs was denied.

Two special permits were granted: the first to Harry D. and Sally Ainsworth, 37 Morelands Terrace, New Bedford, relating to property at 4 and 6 Cathaway Lane where the petitioners requested alterations to one of two one-family dwellings, lawfully conforming uses.

Under current zoning, use of the applicants' property is limited to one-family residential use; however, the two one-family dwellings were in existence at the time of the zoning adoption in 1967, and were used by two families. The request is to remove from the south and west walls of the house the existing single windows, replacing each with two windows. The second is to buttress or replace structural components of the house, such as floor and ceiling joists, ceiling rafters and beams, to maintain and improve the structural integrity of the building. No one appeared in opposition; however, the Board did receive word from six residents and landowners in support of the change. There will be no change in the footprint of the buildings on the lot and alterations will be in harmony with the neighborhood.

The second special permit was granted to William B. and Janet R. Muldoon, 16 Shipyard Lane who requested an exceptional accessory educational use, the operation of a private pre-school, renewing a prior Special Permit in February 8, 1988. The petitioners requested they be relieved of any provision making it necessary to apply for further renewals.

No one appeared in opposition to the application; one neighbor appeared in support. Based on the evidence, the Board found that the school has operated without incident and in accordance with laws and regulations and the pre-school use of the property is in harmony with the zoning by-laws. Several conditions were applied: No more than 15 students; hours 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Monday through Friday, September to May; no signs displayed; no more than one teacher, in addition to a resident occupant, may be employed, and off-street parking shall be provided for such employee; students shall be dropped off and picked up on the east side of Shipyard Lane, the school and its teachers shall comply with all applicable state and local laws and regulations; the permit is personal and is not transferable, and shall

Letter to the Editor

Upon reading a newspaper article that tended to give the impression that a great part of prom period components was the looking forward of students to guzzling alcohol, I almost rashly picked up my pen, then I said what's the use.

However, a friend I met in a store asked me "How come you're always writing letters but you ignore the story about Old Rochester?"

So I said to myself, O.K., if anything I write, although it will obliterate my non-existent chance of winning an Oscar for popularity, will help one person to explode the peer pressure myth, help any parent to see their child come home happy and in one piece instead of a coffin, or chained to a wheelchair, it's worth it.

I probably will be viewed as Goody

Good Drop Joy Killer. I have never had a "drink" in my life, never had any peer pressure or disagreeableness, except at one private party where one of the guests had imbibed too much.

At the Silver Gull I'd sit at the bar before the businessmen's meeting drinking my coke before the meetings started. I figure you don't get to help anyone by being a sour prude sitting in a corner. If anything was casually mentioned that I didn't drink, I would always kid that I didn't drink, among other reasons; first, if I was having such a good time I wanted to be sober and enjoy it, and if I was having such a lousy time I had to drink to enjoy it, I might as well be doing something else.

Years ago I was driving along Route 6 listening to the Big Band music, when a neighboring town's police stopped me, walked over to my car, and point blank asked, "How many drinks have you had?" "Never had a drink in my life". He looked at me, turned on his heel and walked away.

A lot of nebulous claims of habits are interesting. I have never smoked, I used to purloin my uncle's handmade Egyptian cigarettes to provide smoke for my toy trains and boats, which activity was soon given up for the reason of family tranquility. Many years later while driving along, for about 5-10 minutes, I had a great desire to smoke, although I had never tried, that was the end of that.

This being a Democracy I never try to plaster my viewpoints on others, but it is too bad that drinking in films, T.V., etc. constantly give the impression that alcohol is the key to happiness, success, popularity, social climbing and finally destruction and death as though it was the main lubricant of human existence.

. Well, happy and safe returns from the proms.

Roomful of Blues, the quintessential contemporary rhythm and blues band, is based in Providence, Rhode Island. Nominated for three Grammys during their career, Roomful's music is the swing-rooted jump blues of the 40s and 50s. They have performed throughout the United States and Europe including such countries as Sweden and Belgium. As a reviewer for the San Francisco Examiner wrote: "Roomful of Blues blasts out the most compelling band-blues sound I've heard in years, maybe ever." Performing as a group for 17 years, Roomful's current line-up includes Greg Piccolo, vocals and tenor sax; Doug James, baritone sax; Rich Lataille, alto and tenor saxes; Bob Enos, trumpet; Carl Querfurth, trombone; Tommy K, guitar; Junior Brantley, keyboards; Paul Tomasello, bass; and John Rossi, drums. Based on past performances, Roomful of Blues will present the perfect music for a tropical evening - hot and swinging.

David Bromberg is an eclectic performer whose songs range from jazz to country, blues to folk, and vaudeville to rock. During his career which began in the Greenwich Village folk scene of the late 50s and early 60s, Bromberg has worked with many artists including Bob Dylan, Ringo Starr, Tom Paxton and Chubby Checkers among others. As the Harvard Crimson of Cambridge MA. wrote, "Bromberg brings to his music a rare blend of talent, technique and energy that makes him a highly charismatic entertainer."

Jerry Jeff Walker, composer of hundreds of ballads including "Mr. Bojangles", began his career in the 60s in New York City, ushering in the folk movement with the likes of Bob Dylan, Joni Mitchell and Arlo Guthrie. Today, Walker, who makes his home in Austin, Texas, performs music which is an energetic mix of rock and country. His most recent album, "Gypsy Songman", covers the entire span of his career and features re-recorded versions of his classics. Jerry Jeff Walker is known as "one of the finest American songwriters and song interpreters of the last two decades."

The playwright, Joyce Keller Walsh, now living in the Boston area but soon to become a resident of Lakeville, writes about a death that takes place which ends the deep friendship of two older women. From this death suspicions of foul play begin to haunt the friend who is left behind. As the play evolves, we learn that no one is completely innocent. Everyone's lives have changed, when suddenly a violent murder happens rather unexpectedly.

BODY WRAPS HAVE CHANGED! Old body wraps consisted of a solution of oils held to the skin by a cellophane wrap. This caused perspiration and loss of fluids. Once fluids were replaced, the inches lost came back. Our new wraps are elastic cotton wraps soaked in an all-natural solution of minerals and vitamins. Dartmouth is the Committee Chairman.

One outgrowth of the Industrial Revolution was the emergence of upward moving middle class Americans who indulged in fashionable recreations including the cultivation of horticulture. All forms of nature's greenery pervaded the homes and gardens in the 19th century and horticultural commerce increased rapidly after 1860. Nurserymen imported live and preserved plants to meet the rising demand for the exotic. One such world famous importer, "Chinese" Wilson imported plants for Amelia H. Jones in the early 1900's for the Rotch-Jones-Duff property. The chestnut trees as well as other plant material survive today at 396 County Street as evidence of that activity.

The photopanel exhibition will be complemented by several other exhibits throughout the Museum including Victorian period floral arrangements, costumes and decorative arts. According to Mr. Hoag, arrangements are being made for tours to neighboring arboretums, a week celebrating the Arnold Arboretum (Rotch's daughter married James Arnold), and a historic fabric exhibit by the

YWCA PLAY GROUP

If you are feeling isolated or want to meet other women with young children, the YWCA has the group for you. We have created a supportive atmosphere for both the mothers and children. Activities are structured according to the ages of the children. This group is free with a YWCA membership and meets every Friday from 9 to 11:30 a.m.

CALL TO ACTION..FROM THE WORLD YWCA

A call to action for solidarity with South Africa has been endorsed by the YWCA. The focus is on the children and youth in South Africa. Children need to live in an atmosphere of peace and justice. As long as apartheid continues it is impossible for children to grow as healthy adults. The New Bedford YWCA has a petition at the main desk that will be sent to President Botha in June. Show your support by stopping at the YWCA and sign the petition for the children.

DOGS AND CATS IN AMERICAN ART
OPENING MAY 8th

Heritage Plantation of Sandwich on Cape Cod opens to the public for its 19th year on Mother's Day, Sunday, May 8th, with four colorful new exhibits in the Art Museum, Military Museum and Shaker Round Barn. Twenty special events and concerts, five rotating shows in the Old Barn Gallery, garden talks and lectures, plus much more are scheduled for the new season.

Cats - those most mysterious of creatures - and dogs - whose fidelity brings with it the moral responsibility of human friendship, will be featured this season with the premier exhibition, "Canines and Felines: Dogs and Cats in American Art" in the North Wing of the Art Museum.

Art selected for the show consists of works from the late 18th century to the present. Objects show everyone's fascination with pets and love of animals as revealed in the work of some of America's leading artists. Dogs and cats will be depicted as primary objects in some paintings and as secondary characters in others. Many works of art picture animals at play or as the objects of affection, while others show them hunting, facing trials or in danger.

The exhibition also includes over 170 paintings, prints, drawings, sculptures, textiles and ceramics from the Plantation's collections, as well as from major museums, art galleries and private collections throughout the country. Included among the many institutional lenders are: New York Historical So-presenting programs in conjunction with the exhibition during the season.

The evolution of American art glass from its roots in the mid-nineteenth century through, and including, examples of contemporary practitioners of the craft is the focus of an exhibit in the foyer of the Art Museum. Over ninety pieces, including works by Tiffany, Steuben, Durand and other world-renowned makers are on loan from institutions and private collections. Some of the participating lenders are: The Corning Museum, The Rockwell Museum, The Jones Museum, The Chrysler Museum of Art and The Birmingham Museum of Art.

"British Military Uniforms of La Belle Epoque" is the new display in the Military Museum. The exhibition gallery offers 12 complete British uniforms, dating from 1890 to 1914, together with additional accouterments such as belts, helmets, caps, swords, boots, pouches and sporrans. All were selected to reflect the fashion and life-style of the British gentleman officer in the period just prior to the Great War. The uniforms were drawn from the holdings of New England Military Collector Meng Chi Tsen.

"Shaker Shapes" is the new seasonal exhibition in the lower gallery of the Hancock Shaker Round Barn. Over fifty objects from the collections at Hancock Shaker Village and the Art Complex at Duxbury are represented in this show. The exhibit focuses on the exacting standards and the simplistic, almost abstract, quality of Shaker Bonnet molds, buttonhole chisels, textiles, baskets and a wide variety of furniture and other accessories comprise the rest of the show.

The first Rotating Exhibition of the season will also begin on opening day in the Old Barn Gallery and run through June 5th.
